

Rogny-les-Sept-Écluses / Briare

La Scandibérique

From Rogny-les-7-Écluses, the Scandibérique continues to follow the course of the Briare Canal, first taking you beside the Étang-Neuf supply channel running parallel to Rogny's flight of seven locks. While waiting for the definitive route, a provisional route guides you between Rogny-les-Sept-Écluses and the place called "Le Petit Chaloy". Engineering constructions put in place for the benefit of the canal's boatmen are dotted along this stretch, which proves a delight for nature lovers too. Briare is renowned for its historic bridge-canal and its boating tourism, plus it's the place where the Scandibérique joins the Loire à Vélo route, in a picture-postcard setting!

The route

Greenway beside the Briare Canal, plus some provisional stretches along minor roads. No particular difficulties along the way.

Surfacing in parts smooth, in parts rough: along the towpaths, the asphalt is in more or less good condition, while a few stretches consist of compacted tracks. Tarmacked roads for the rest of the stage.

Connection

At Briare, the Scandibérique connects with the Loire à Vélo cycle route.
